

The EKLIPSE Knowledge Network and Open Community (KNOCK) has been created to provide an interactive online platform where policy-makers, scientists and the general public can engage in dialogue and discussion. The following terms govern the discussions and any interactive content presented on EKLIPSE KNOCK.

1. As a user, you agree not to use any offensive language on KNOCK including any material that is profane, inaccurate, defamatory, false, inappropriate, threatening, hateful, constitutes junk mail or unauthorized advertising, infringes on any person's privacy, violates copyright laws, encourages conduct that would constitute a criminal offense, gives rise to civil liability, or otherwise be in violation of any local, state, national, or international law or regulation. Moderators of EKLIPSE KNOCK reserve the right to remove any such content at any time without your consent.
2. As a user, you agree that you will not knowingly subvert the functionality of the KNOCK system. This includes any action that manipulates the underlying software application or other technologies with the intent of interrupting the service, access information or otherwise derive results that are not part of the intended purpose of the KNOCK. In these instances, we reserve the right to revoke registration of the KNOCK and take appropriate legal action.
3. As a user, you agree not to post any copyrighted material unless the copyright is owned by you or appropriately referenced. By submitting content to KNOCK you are attesting that any citation or appropriation of other people's work within it has been appropriately referenced or otherwise cleared and approved by the relevant copyright holder. Any work submitted to the KNOCK remains the property of the author, and will be publicly attributed as such.
4. All communications made available as part of KNOCK and any opinions, advice, statements or other information contained in any messages posted or transmitted there are the responsibility of the author. To maintain relevant content, EKLIPSE moderators reserve the right to remove messages we assess to be inappropriate or off topic and conduct moderate editing we identify as reasonable. Although EKLIPSE moderators can delete messages, you remain solely responsible for the content of your messages, and you agree to indemnify and do hold EKLIPSE responsible for any claims posted in your messages.
5. Moderators will monitor discussions on the KNOCK and have the right to remove part or all of your post without warning, if there is suspicion or evidence that KNOCK rules are being broken. If a user repeatedly break the rules, then they may be permanently prevented from registering, logging in and/or posting.

Activities not tolerated at EKLIPSE KNOCK include the following:

- Insulting, threatening, annoying or provocative behaviour.
- Using hate-speech, or making obscene or vulgar comments.
- Unlawful activity. This includes breach of copyright, defamation, condoning or promoting illegal activity and contempt of court (by making posts that could affect the outcome of an impending court action).
- Spamming (posting the same comment multiple times).
- Advertising commercial interests.
- Impersonating or falsely claiming to represent a person or organisation.
- Invading someone's privacy. This includes posting anyone's personal details without their permission.
